

The City of Commerce Department of Parks and Recreation offers a reduced annual registration fee for youth from low-income families. The purpose of this financial assistance program is to provide opportunities to the underrepresented and economically disadvantaged youth in our City. The Outreach Program reduces the registration fee a family pays. Complete the Participant Information Section, Section A-Household Income Information, and either Section B-Proof of Income or Section C-Proof of Assistance and submit with the required documentation and membership application.
